

GIBNEY DANCE

UPLOAD

PERFORMANCE AT TISCH

Gibney Dance will perform at the TISCH SUMMER RESIDENCY FESTIVAL on Wednesday, June 2 at 7:30 p.m. Excerpts from our repertory will be performed by six amazing dancers: Natsuki Arai and Joshua Palmer - pictured above - Courtney Drasner, Michael Novak, Joshua Palmer, Hannah Seidel and intern Moses Kaplan. The performance will include lighting design by Kathy Kaufmann, set and costumes design by Lex Liang, original music by Ryan Lott and live animation by Joshue Ott/superDraw.

Bring your iPhones and iPads or borrow them from friends as the performance will be followed by an interactive superDraw* demonstration -- and free beer! The Tisch School of the Arts is located at 111 Second Avenue on the 5th Floor (between 6th and 7th Streets). Tickets are $10 and will be on sale at the gate.

* superDraw is a live generative art system which uses a computer to augment the simple act of drawing - transforming it into an evolving process whereby the user can watch their input shift in a careful balance of control and chance.

ART + ACTION GALA 2010

Gibney Dance would like to thank all our wonderful supporters - including the handsome team from Macy's Merchandising Group pictured above with the company - who made the ART + ACTION GALA 2010 a memorable event. The evening was fierce - from the festive cocktail and silent auction in a studio overlooking Manhattan's skyline, to the emotionally stirring performances, to our after party featuring jazz performers Jody Sandhaus and Pete Malinverni, and DJ Plasticdragon. We will be posting more photos and videos on our website very soon. Thanks to all in attendance you all so much for allowing the magic to happen!

And for those of you who missed the event but would still like to make a contribution, it's not too late!
